

NOVEMBER 2024

CITL WEBSITE

FACULTY TRAININGS

RSVP for faculty development events by scanning or clicking the QR code for a direct link the Event's page

Portfolio: Narrative

Tuesday 12th & Wednesday 13th
Bldg. 500, Rm. 210 and Zoom
2:00 - 3:00 p.m.

Participants attending this training will gain insight on effectively articulating their teaching philosophy, achievements, and service to the college through a compelling narrative that enhances their Continuing Contract portfolio.

New Faculty Series

Wednesday 20th
Bldg. 500, Rm. 210
1:30 - 2:30 p.m.

New faculty will learn about creating meaningful assessments that align with course objectives and the topic of academic integrity

AI OFFERINGS

AI Using Pedagogical Studies

Wednesday 6th
Bldg. 500, Rm. 210 and Zoom
2:00 - 3:00 p.m.

Participants will explore the intersection of artificial intelligence and educational theory. The session will also cover ethical considerations and best practices for integrating AI into educational settings. The goal is to empower educators with knowledge and practical strategies for leveraging AI to improve educational outcomes.

AI in Action Presentations

Thursday 21st
Bldg. 500, Rm. 210 and Zoom
2:00 - 3:00 p.m.

Join us while AI fellows share their experiences using AI in the classroom. They will showcase innovative ways to integrate AI into instruction and support student study practices.

UPCOMING DATES

Veteran's Day

Monday 11th
Campus Closed

Thanksgiving Break

Wednesday 27th - Friday 29th
Campus Closed

If you have any questions, please contact the CITL at CITL@nwfsc.edu or 850-729-6464