VOLUNTEER CODE OF CONDUCT

Northwest Florida State College takes pride in our Kids on Campus program and strives to recruit exceptional instructors and volunteers. Our volunteers assist instructors and Kids on Campus students in moving in between classes, and during camp sessions under the supervision of the instructors. Professional and proper behavior is necessary to protect all students' health, safety, and well-being. Kids on Campus promotes a warm, welcoming, and friendly environment.

Expected behavior includes:

- Respect college staff, camp instructors, students, and others.
- Respect students' belongings, and space.
- Listen and follow college staff and instructor directions.
- Interact appropriately in group settings.

Unacceptable behaviors include:

- Being disruptive.
- Use of profanity/obscene comments.
- Leaving the class without instructor permission.
- Theft or damage of campus property.

My signature indicates that I have read and understand the above statement and agree to adhere to the Volunteer Code of Conduct.
